

Angie Monksfield

Association of Professional
Trainers (Singapore)

Genuine + Professional + Integrity

"Be A Leader & Not Just a Manager"

Ms. Angie Monksfield

Vice President, Singapore Computer Society

Email : Angie_Monksfield@Singaporeair.com.sg

Angie Monksfield serves as a Vice President in the Singapore Computer Society. She founded Cognitive Design Systems Pte Ltd in the late 80s and later sold the business to the EDS group. She then joined Andersen Consulting (now known as Accenture) and later Visa International as Regional Director, subsequently headed up a joint venture of Accenture and Visa, Global Trade Payments Pte Ltd. She is currently a Vice-President in a major airline responsible for delivering large enhancement and new application projects. She is also an Adjunct Associate Professor at the Singapore Management University. She has published articles on "Business Process Reengineering" in the Business Times and on "Project Management" in The IT Society Magazine.

She is an active leader in community service. She has led humanitarian missions to Sri Lanka and Thailand after the Tsunami and recently to Myanmar after the Nargis Cyclone. She is also a Playwright, Director and Producer, and served on Media Development Authority's Arts Consultative Panel. Her most recent musical, "Passage of Time" was staged over 5 nights at the Raffles Hotel in Singapore.