SYNOPSIS; “The Q-n-A: How to make it Effective”

The novice speaker is often intimidated by the prospect of answering questions from the audience. The experienced speaker relishes the opportunity as the “Question-and-Answer” session is actually the presentation after the presentation where one can still create a positive image of oneself and have a useful, enjoyable interaction with the audience. The speaker will share some tips and techniques on handling the Q-n-A portion of our presentations.

Dr. Asha is a dentist of more than 25 years' experience. She has her own dental practice, Smile Makers Dental Clinic.

Dr. Asha is an experienced public speaker and has been interviewed on TV and radio. She is known for her engaging and authoritative speaking ability. This professional Smile Maker is available for corporate wellness seminars or talks.

What People Say about Dr. Asha...

We have conducted several other health related programmes previously and I should say that Dr Asha's session was superb.

Dr Asha was very precise, concise and clear in the way she delivered the presentation. Most of my attendees came back to me and mentioned that the talk was a real eye opener on how to maintain our teeth for life! It may be a simple message, but many of us either are not aware or have neglected the issue without realizing the damage and complications that may arise.
