

Genuine + Professional + Integrity

Professional Speaker's Profile

Karen Leong

The Science of being Memorable - The Roadmap to effective Networking

Karen Leong is a versatile coach, corporate trainer and facilitator in the areas of executive performance improvement and communicating for results. She is expert in a number of effective human interaction strategies and motivation techniques, specially customized for the Singapore context (mindset and linguistic nuances), which boost performance, morale, sales, and ultimately profits.

A Certified Public Accountant, she has over 10 years of consulting, facilitation and audit experience leading courses on professional skills development, communication techniques, and project management with global corporations like KPMG.

She has trained over 1000 executives in Asia and Europe and has been profiled on Singapore TV Channel U.

She has facilitated learning and development for managers of Fortune 500 giants and Asian conglomerates including Citibank, American International Group, Travelex, Samsung, Maybank, and Fraser & Neave.

She reads and travels extensively. Her calling is to helping hard-working executives lead fuller, healthier, more creative days to enable them to deliver their very best.

In her workshops, she creates a light and conducive learning environment for the participants with exercises and interaction, where Ideas are Discovered as they Experience "A-HAs" (I.D.E.A ©).

Her recent article "7 valuable ways to keep in touch" published in Shanghai Networking News.

Karen Leong

Corporate Trainer – Facilitator - Speaker

The Leadership Company Pte. Ltd.

Mobile : (65) 97116920 / Office DID: (65) 62385860 / Fax: (65) 62385865

Web: www.leadership.sg