Kelvin Lee graduated from Nanyang Academy of Fine Arts in 1998. He worked in a photo studio before setting up his own design company, John 14:6. In 2001, he joined Fig Tree Multimedia Pte Ltd, a company focused on providing services in the area of presentation. He is overall in-charge of the training, design and multimedia department.

Kelvin is a dynamic and eloquent communicator. He is also an experienced trainer of our Power Design for Presentation workshops. His passion is in equipping people with the skills to create presentations that are both impressive and persuasive. Kelvin writes regularly and is an author at well established online article directories like Ezinearticles.com and Helium.com.

The clients that have gone through his training include PSA, IBM, Shell Petroleum, AT&T, Mindef and Republic Polytechnic. Both Kelvin and his team are certified Microsoft PowerPoint specialist.
