

Stephen Yee

Assistant Executive Director and Director of Training, Singapore National Employers Federation (SNEF)

Stephen Yee, is the Assistant Executive Director and also the Director of Training with Singapore National Employers Federation (SNEF), where he assist the Executive Director and is primarily responsible for managing the SNEF Training Institute business and to engage employers to embrace a corporate philosophy where effective management of human capital is key to business success.

SNEF Training Institute is programme partners and also the WSQ Authorized Training Organizations for the various WSQ programs, namely WSQ ES programs, WSQ ACTA, HR WSQ, Leadership and People Management, Manufacturing Generic Skills and also WSQ Service Excellence.

He is also a strong believer of continuing education and holds the various professional certifications in Info-Comm Technology (ICT) in Microsoft, IBM (Lotus). He also holds a Double Degree in Computing and Management Studies (Honours) and Bsc (Econs) in Management Studies with University of London and a Master in Project Management (High Distinction) with University of Adelaide.

He is also actively involved in task forces and committees in various professional societies and community work to further evangelize the need to upgrade one's employability skills, opportunities for work improvement and helping workers to better understand, lead and achieve the corporate vision.