Training Experiences

David Lee is known to be one of the youngest authorities in the training industry. He has trained, coached and spoken to thousands in Singapore, Japan, Malaysia, Thailand, Indonesia and China. His participants include professionals such as top management, doctors, lawyers and lecturers from MNC to top institutions. David is invited for his expertise in three areas namely Professional Presentation Mastery, Influential Leadership and Transformational Business Management.

Business Management Experiences

Within the first five years of corporate work, he has headed regional businesses and led top management from a group of companies with businesses from Education, Travel to F&B. During which he has also led international conferences and exported local training overseas. He was appointed as director over a few companies. Thereafter he started his own training business and is appointed as the President of the Association of Professional Trainers, Singapore.

Academic Qualifications

In addition to his Honours Degree in Engineering from NUS, David is also an accredited Human Behaviour Consultant with the Leadership Institute of America. He is also a Certified Professional Trainer with the International Professional Managers Association, UK.

Mr David Lee has been invited as Guest-Of-Honour and guest speaker in school speech day and youth communities. What makes him a well-liked speaker? It is his ability to engage his listeners and fulfill desired objectives. He does not stop at educating minds but often moves on to touch hearts and engage commitments. Apart from training and speaking, he is involved in initiatives to raise a new generation of transformational trainers and leaders.
